How fantastic is it when individuals (and clubs) come together to volunteer their time for an event which they are not involved in, but value, support and respect.

The Great Southern Colts Carnival event epitomises these values. As is said very often, volunteers are the glue that holds a community together. From 14th – 16th June the whole community (Kulin and Kondinin) came together to ensure the 300+ people attending the carnival experienced fantastic hospitality and the event ran smoothly. Kulin should be very proud of their achievements and the ability to host wonderful regional events at the Freebairn Recreation Centre. Congratulations to the Organising Committee and Shire of Kulin for all the work before, during and after the event.

An exciting project that is in progress is Kulin Tennis Court Resurfacing Project. The project was approved in the 2023-24 budget and will carry forward into the 2024-25 budget. The front six courts will be resurfaced with synthetic grass which is going to look fantastic. The Shire is working with the Kulin Tennis Club to get the project to fruition.

There is plenty happening around town in the next few weeks and some things to take note of:

- Roadworks – please prepare for delays when on the Kulin-Lake Grace Road as Main Roads undertake road pavement repairs, surface corrections and shoulder widening.

- Dr Vivenne will be on annual leave from 8th July to 12th July 2024. Every effort is being made to find a locum to fill in at the service for that time, however no one has been appointed as yet. If a locum cannot be appointed the service will close for that week.

- Kulin Blokes night – further information further in the update. It is a great opportunity to catch up so please support the initiative.

- 44th Australian Infantry Battalion Memorial – 2nd July 2024 at 3.30pm – Kulin War Memorial – further information on this event is in this edition

medical centre closed

Dr Chukwuneke will be away from 8th July up to and including Friday 12th July

44th Australian Infantry Battalion Memorial

Details: Date: 2nd of July 2024, Time: 3:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

•Location: Kulin War Memorial, Johnston Street

As part of our ongoing remembrance efforts, the 44th Australian Infantry Battalion Memorial is conducting a series of ceremonies across the Wheatbelt region. We are honoured to include Kulin in our journey and would greatly appreciate the presence of your local officials.

We will be commemorating four local wheatbelt soldiers at your town.

Private William Ashworth, Private Frank Cox, Private Walter Cryer & Private William Stewart. About the 44th Battalion Memorial: Founded by Luca Muir Anderson, an Army Reservist, the 44th Australian Infantry Battalion Memorial aims to honour the 2,101 soldiers who served in the local WA battalion. One of our initiatives includes a 2,101KM run spanning every Local Government Area across WA, symbolizing the vast origins of these brave soldiers across the state.

In addition to commemorating the soldiers of the 44th Battalion, our ceremony serves as a fundraiser for key projects, including a documentary, creation of a physical memorial, and educational collaborations with schools.

We invite members of the Shire of Kulin to support our memorial through donations. The town in Western Australia that contributes the most donations per capita will be honoured with a Trench Art Trophy from World War Two

GREAT SOUTHERN COLTS CARNIVAL

The Great Southern Colts Carnival was a big hit, with eight teams battling it out. The oval looked fantastic, providing a perfect contrast to the clear blue skies we enjoyed over the weekend.

The recreation centre was transformed to maximize space, accommodating over 280 diners on Saturday evening for a wonderful dinner organized by the Colts Carnival Committee.

A big thank you goes to the Colts Committee, the Kulin Kondinin Football Club, and all the amazing volunteers for their hard work in making this event a success. From the Recreation Centre, it was great to see the whole community working together towards a common goal.

Throughout the event, attendees enjoyed excellent service, from breakfast each morning to a well-stocked canteen and bar. The “School Grounds” Coffee Van was on site, serving delicious coffee to keep everyone energized. A burger service was also available during the games, ensuring that no one went hungry while cheering on their Favorite teams.

The great weather was the cherry on top, creating the perfect combination for a great weekend. It was wonderful to see the centre filled with people enjoying the facilities. All players showed sportsmanship, making us proud to host such a fantastic event.

In a personal capacity, I would like to highlight how admirable the community work in Kulin is. It’s a pleasure to witness it.

We look forward to welcoming everyone back next year for another Great Southern Colts Carnival in Kulin!

Iria, Freebairn Recreation Centre

Being part of the Colts organising team was such a great experience, seeing how much effort and time Don, Tracey, Nicole, Iria, Alan and all the liaison officers, team managers, coaches, volunteers and of course players put into the carnival is so amazing.

It was so lovely to see also, that the Hub really was a hive of activity on Friday and Saturday nights, the staff did such a great job of keeping up with the crowd, I’m sure it was no easy task. Seeing the facilities come alive and be so full is so wonderful for our little community.

Belle Brandis

Once again the Kulin Community turned it on to host a very successful 2024 Great Southern Colts Carnival over the weekend of 15 – 16 June 2024.

The Freebairn Recreation Centre, Oval and surrounds were in top condition and with two glorious days of weather the facility presented was second to none.

Together we provided close to 300 meals on both Friday and Saturday nights, catered for 250 for breakfast on Saturday and Sunday and through the canteen sold:

- 580 hamburgers
- 10kg hot chips

Over 700 canteen items (325 toasties, plus 350 pies, sausage rolls, hotdogs & soup)

Plus, an abundance of freshly made scones with jam and cream thanks to Jo Bradford!

To be able to provide these quantities of food we are reliant on the sporting club members and community volunteers. A huge thank you to the many amazing volunteers who made it possible to keep all our visitors fed over the 3 days.

Kulin District High School Selected As Finalist For 'Best Practice Award'

Kulin District High School has been recognised for the exceptional work of school staff and school leadership in implementing their highly innovative 'School Grounds' Project. The school has been selected as a Finalist of the 2024 'Best Practice Award' for District High Schools.

Kulin District High School Principal, Mr Garry Walker was proud that his school is selected as a finalist for the Award. Mr Walker said: "This award demonstrates that our school is continuing to innovate to meet the needs of our students, and the innovation in our school is amongst the best in the state. We took a simple idea – to provide a barista training program for students, and then use this to link to our community – and that became the basis of the School Grounds project."

Mr Kevin Brady, President of the Western Australian District High School Administrators Association (WADHSAA), explained that the school has been selected as a finalist based on the creative and engaging program that has been provided for students.

"Our committee considered the range of outstanding practice throughout District High Schools this year and we have selected the best as finalists for the Award," Mr Brady said.

The 'School Grounds' Coffee Van started in 2023, when Kulin DHS identified the need to implement a learning initiative that goes beyond the traditional classroom boundaries, by providing students with a real-world application. Through collaboration with local professionals with backgrounds in business and marketing, a business concept was developed to pitch to the Kulin Bendigo Community Bank.

Students in Years 7-10 worked on the initial stages of planning which included the branding and naming of the coffee van. A graphic designer worked collaboratively with the students over the course of three days to teach them about the various design elements and develop two concepts which were to be voted on by key stakeholders.

The local Kulin Bendigo Community Bank gifted the school a trailer and paid for the costs of a full refurbishment into a commercially approved mobile coffee van developed in collaboration with the students.

The students were engaging in on-the-job training to build an understanding of customers' needs. The business slogans which were integrated into the branding included "Your Coffee is Our Classroom", and "The Perfect Blend for Learning!"

Students travelled to the Newdegate Field Days and were responsible for running the van as a part of the Bendigo Bank's promotional strategy. The Bank continues to support this initiative by funding a Secondary Specialist Program which allows us to continue providing barista training for students interested in becoming involved in this project.

The 'Best Practice Awards' are presented by WADHSAA each year to schools that demonstrate innovative curriculum practice, links to the local community, and success for students.

Kulin Childcare Centre

We have been busy in the garden this past week. Our blood orange tree has given us so many oranges this year the children have been able to make fresh orange juice to try.

The learning experience from picking fruit to making it into a juice drink gives them a strong sense of becoming, this supports the framework for our Early Years Learning Framework.

As well as being out picking fruit from our trees, the children have been busy planting broccoli and last year's carrot seeds for our next crop. Picking and eating carrots is a joy for our children and they are eagerly awaiting the growth of the seeds!

We have been working on opposites. Pictured here the children are gluing big and small pictures of animals. Sue has also been completing a great range of mat sessions with cards relating to opposites. The children are able to answer questions and help each other with the answers during these mat sessions.

A big thank you to the Kulin Bush Races for their grant! We have started to order some new toys for our centre. We have recently unpacked and pumped up these new balls for the yard. We have been practising our coordination, kicking and passing skills which has provided so much fun, we are very grateful.

Thank you to our families who support us.

Meanwhile, heat 1 tbsp of the oil in a wok or deep-frying pan over a medium heat and cook the peppers for 3-4 minutes until just beginning to soften. Remove with a slotted spoon and set aside.

Step 3

Spread the cornflour out in a shallow bowl. Season, then add the marinated chicken strips and toss to coat well.

Step 4

Fill a wok or deep-frying pan with the oil so it's about ½ cm deep, then heat to medium-high. Carefully add the chicken in batches, cooking for 3-4 minutes, using tongs to turn regularly until golden and crispy. Remove with a slotted spoon and place on a plate lined with kitchen paper to drain.

Step 5

Mix together the remaining soy, sweet chilli, garlic paste and sesame oil in a large bowl. Add the cooked peppers, crispy chicken and toss together until coated all over and sticky. Serve sprinkled with the spring onions.

TRICIA TYSON - BLAZE AID

Tricia and Adrian Tyson are one of the many farms BlazeAid have worked their magic on. I was lucky enough to get to speak to Tricia on how their experience has been with BlazeAid, and I got some amazing feedback.

Taking a step back to the Corrigin and Wickepin fires, in which BlazeAid attended, Tricia had seen the organisation firstly on social media, which then migrated to the news. 'They're at every disaster, so that's how we heard about them'.

'BlazeAid has been excellent, really good'. Les Tyson, Tricia's brother-in-law, got in contact with BlazeAid. They stated that 6 or 7 farms had to be affected for them to set camp up in Kulin. They then told Les that the Shire had to invite them in. 'The Kulin Shire was very good and invited them in and gave BlazeAid accommodation'. 'BlazeAid has been amazing, they have a nice cook'. They turn up before 8am most mornings, and they're out there in the rain and wind. 'Rain or shine they're out there, which is wonderful considering they are volunteering'.

Overall, Tysons lost around 70kms of fencing, a shearing shed roof, garage doors as well as other damage. Their neighbors have lost workshops, sheds, fences. 'It is just unbelievable, my husband Adrian said he's never seen anything like this before. Trees stripped like match sticks.

If BlazeAid was not available to set up camp in Kulin, Tricia mentioned that they still would not have any fences, they don't have sheep, but their neighbors' sheep were getting into their paddocks. 'We spent 3 months cleaning up'. An astonishing number of sticks and branches were blown into paddocks. 'Our worker spent about 3 months picking up and moving these, so that we were able to seed. We have finished seeding now, but we have spraying to commence.' If BlazeAid wasn't able to do what they are doing, Tricia mentioned she would have paid somebody to come in, but they were given quotes of $70,000 to $80,000 just for the fencing, not to buy the fencing, not to clean the fencing up, but just to come and erect the fences.' So obviously, we are all so grateful that BlazeAid is an organisation that is available for situations like these. Sadly, Tricia's "side of town" has had a lot of tragedy lately, with losing neighbors and some very sick. One of Tricia's neighbors hasn't had time to pull his fences down, and thanks to BlazeAid, they are out there pulling them down, so that her neighbor has time to focus on family.

'BlazeAid are volunteers from all over Australia, including New Zealand. They're not ex-farmers. They're just everyday people.' The donations received goes to food and resources for BlazeAid. Other than that, they're not earning any money from their hard work. 'We gave BlazeAid a donation, and specified we wanted it to go to the Kulin Camp.'

There has been lovely support from the community, there has been people that have donated biscuits, honey, eggs, homemade jam. 'All of us are so grateful for BlazeAid'.

COOKING FOR BEGINNERS

1. Read The Recipe Thoroughly

Take time to read the entire recipe from start to finish so you know what to expect before you begin cooking. Familiarize yourself with the ingredients you'll need for the entire recipe, along with the likely measurements and cooking techniques.

Not only will you get vision of how to create the dish, but you'll also avoid being caught off-guard with any surprises or mistakes along the way.

2. Gather All The Ingredients Before You Start Cooking

Preparation is truly what separates the kitchen veteran and beginner chief in the kitchen. Before you even start cooking, gather all the ingredients and tools you'll need for your recipe.

This involves washing, chopping, dicing and measuring out your ingredients and setting them in their respective bowls and dishes so they're ready to go at a moment's notice. You'll also want to lay out all the tools you may need.

3. Start With Simple Recipes

One of the best cooking tips for beginners is to start with simple recipes. This means recipes with fewer ingredients, fewer steps and basic cooking techniques.

It's say it's best to start this way because there's nothing more demotivating than to end up with unfavorable results when you're just starting out. Some may disagree, but since it's an essential life skill I'd recommend starting with simple recipes to build your confidence through success and in turn, gradually build familiarity in the kitchen.

4. Keep Your Knives Sharp

Dull knives are recipes for disaster. They make cutting more difficult, so you'll find yourself hacking and sawing away unproductively when it comes to the prep work.

Invest in a good knife sharpener and keep your knives sharp, honed and clean to make your time in the kitchen much safer and efficient.

5. Create A Stable Base With Grip For Your Cutting Board

A simple hack I like to use for chopping, cutting, slicing and dicing tasks is to place a damp dush cloth or tea towel under my cutting board. This keeps the cutting board in place with little to no movement, which helps a ton when it comes to safety and precision.

6. Learn and Master Basic Knife Skills

Learning basic knife skills will change your experience in the kitchen from a tiring one to a fun and speedy one. Learn and practice knife techniques like chopping, slice and dicing to cut off heaps of time spent on food preparation.

7. Taste As You Go

Your taste buds are one of the best guides you could ever have in the kitchen. Taste your food as it cooks so you can estimate or know for sure to adjust the flavour and seasoning as needed.

8. Invest In Quality Measuring Cups And Spoons

There are various types of measuring utensils these days, but I'm of the thought that transparent measuring cups are the best. Yes, that typically means glass or plastic measuring cups.

Why transparent measuring cups? That's because it's easier to measure liquid and ingredients accurately when you can see the measurements clearly at eye level. Precise measurements can certainly make a difference between a culinary success and a flop.

9. Use Room Temperature Ingredients

When you're baking or cooking, it's best to use ingredients when they are at room temperature. Be it eggs, butter, or dairy. Simple remove it from the refrigerator or freezer and allow it to sit until it comes to room temperature before you use it.

Room temperature ingredients are easier to blend evenly and to work with overall, so you'll be looking at better cooking results.

10. Preheat Your Oven

It's a common mistake to put the dish in the oven and turn on the temperature to 180C just because the recipe says, "place the dish in the oven at 180C".

What it actually means is that you have to pre-heat the oven to 180C first, before placing the dish in the oven to bake. Keep this in mind to ensure that your baked goods rise properly and cook evenly.

11. Don't Overcrowd The Pan Or Pot

It can be tempting to cook a bulk of food and fill up all every bit of space you see in the pan or fill the pot up to the brim when boiling water. But don't do that.

Give your ingredients room to breathe and give yourself space to maneuver them as they cook. If you have to, you can even cook it in batches to ensure that heat is constantly distributed evenly.

12. Use A Timer

Whether you're roasting vegetables, baking cookies, boiling water for pasta, or leaving dough to rise, use and set a kitchen timer so that you avoid overcooking or under-rising.

It's far too easy to get distracted in the kitchen, be it by yummy snacks or in the midst of cleaning up.

NAIDOC WEEK

The Albanese Government is pleased to announce the opening of $1.7 million in grants to support local communities and organisations to celebrate 2024 NAIDOC Week and the rich and diverse cultures of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians.

Held across the country from 7-14 July 2024, NAIDOC Week will celebrate and recognize the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

This year's theme chosen by the National NAIDOC Committee, is Keep the Fire Burning! Blak, Loud and Proud. This year's theme celebrates the unyielding spirit of our communities and invites all to stand in solidarity, amplifying the voices that have long been silenced.

The fire represents the enduring strength and vitality of Indigenous cultures, passed down through generations despite the challenges faced. It is a symbol of connection to the land, to each other, and to the rich tapestry of traditions that define Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. As we honour this flame, we kindle the sparks of pride and unity, igniting a renewed commitment to acknowledging, preserving and sharing the cultural heritage that enriches our nation.

“Blak, Loud and Proud” encapsulates the unapologetic celebration of Indigenous identity empowering us to stand tall in our heritage and assert our place in the modern world. This theme calls for a reclamation of narratives, an amplification of voices, and an unwavering commitment to justice and equality. It invites all Australians to listen, learn and engage in meaningful dialogue, fostering a society where the wisdom and contributions of Indigenous peoples are fully valued and respected.

Through our collective efforts, we can forge a future where the stories, traditions and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities are cherished and celebrated, enriching the fabric of the nation with the oldest living culture in the world.

The theme honours the enduring strength and vitality of First Nations culture – with fire a symbol of connection to Country, to each other, and to the rich tapestry of traditions that define Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

National NAIDOC Week is an opportunity for all Australians to learn about First Nations cultures and histories and participate in celebrations of the oldest, continuous living cultures on earth. You can support and get to know your local Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander communities through activities and events held across the country.

History

1920-1930

Before the 1920s, Aboriginal rights groups boycotted Australia Day in protest against the status and treatment of Indigenous Australians. By the 1920s, they were increasingly aware that the broader Australian public were largely ignorant of the boycotts. If the movement were to make progress, it would need to be active.

Several organisations emerged to fill this role, particularly the Australian Aborigines Progressive Association (AAPA) in 1924 and the Australian Aborigines League (AAL) in 1932. Their efforts were largely overlooked, and due to police harassment, the AAPA abandoned their work in 1927.

In 1935, William Cooper, founder of the AAL, drafted a petition to send to King George V, asking for special Aboriginal electorates in Federal Parliament. The Australian Government believed that the petition fell outside its constitutional responsibilities.

On Australia Day, 1938, protestors

marched through the streets of Sydney, followed by a congress attended by over a thousand people. One of the first major civil rights gatherings in the world, it was known as the Day of Mourning.

Following the congress, a deputation led by William Cooper presented Prime Minister Joseph Lyons with a proposed national policy for Aboriginal people. This was again rejected because the Government did not hold constitutional powers in relation to Aboriginal people.

After the Day of Mourning, there was a growing feeling that it should be a regular event. In 1939 William Cooper wrote to the National Missionary Council of Australia to seek their assistance in supporting and promoting an annual event.

1940 – 1955

From 1940 until 1955, the Day of Mourning was held annually on the Sunday before Australia Day and was known as Aborigines Day. In 1955 Aborigines Day was shifted to the first Sunday in July after it was decided the day should become not simply a protest day but also a celebration of Aboriginal culture.

1956 – 1990

Major Aboriginal organisations, state and federal governments, all supported the formation of the National Aborigines Day Observance Committee (NADOC). At the same time, the second Sunday in July became a day of remembrance for Aboriginal people and their heritage.

In 1972, the Department of Aboriginal Affairs was formed, as a major outcome of the 1967 referendum.

In 1974, the NADOC committee was composed entirely of Aboriginal members for the first time. The following year, it was decided that the event should cover a week, from the first to second Sunday in July.

Feedback

Great RV park in centre of town with showers and toilets. Hotel opposite, friendly staff and good meals. Would recommend IGA and Mitre 10. Great town.

Great spot, great town, friendly pub, highly recommended

Thank you Kulin Community for the RV stop, much appreciated. This is how its done and we spent money in the town to say thankyou. Everything so clean and accessible. Very quiet at night.

Thank you to the Kulin Shire for this wonderful RV camping area, and for keeping the facilities clean and well maintained. The town is small but welcoming. We enjoyed lunch at the coffee ship, and at the community run put. Highly recommend.
