

Freedom of Information Statement

Shire of Kulin

Reviewed May 2024

INTRODUCTION

Section 96(1) of the Freedom of Information Act (1992) requires agencies, including local governments, at intervals of not more than 12 months, to ensure that an up-to-date Information Statement about the agency is published.

The Information Statement should inform the public of the structure and functions of the agency, outline the types of documents held by the agency and explain how the agency's document can be accessed by the public. This statement contains:-

- The Agency's Mission Statement
- Details of legislation administered
- Details of the agency structure
- Details of decision-making functions
- Opportunities for public consultation in the formulation of policy and performance of agency functions
- Documents held by the agency
- The operation of FOI within the agency

This document has been prepared by the Shire of Kulin to satisfy Part 5 of the Act, and is correct as at May 2024. Copies of this document can be obtained from:

ORGANISATION STRUCTURE

The Council

The Council is made up of members of the local community who are elected to office by residents and ratepayers of the Shire.

The Council is led by a President and seven (7) councillors who represent the entire district. As a group they are the decision and policy making body of the Shire.

Each Councillor and the President is elected for a four (4) year term. The next Local Government election will be held October 2025.

A current list of Councillors is available on the Council's website www.kulin.wa.gov.au

Management

Staff are responsible for ensuring Council decisions and policies are carried out. To implement Council decisions, it is necessary to employ professional staff.

Management of staff is through senior officers including the Chief Executive Officer, Executive Manager Financial Services, Executive Manager Community Services and Executive Manager of Works.

The Chief Executive Officer, who is employed by the Council has delegated authority, provides advice to Council and manages the day to day running of the Shire.

DECISION MAKING FUNCTIONS

Local Government Act 1995

The Local Government Act prescribes the parameters within which the Shire must function.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Members of the public have a number of opportunities to put forward their views on particular issues before the Council. These include:

Community Consultation

The Council consults with its residents on particular issues that affect their neighbourhood by way of advertising in local publications, newspapers, calling public meetings, using various social media platforms and seeking responses by way of surveys and public submission periods.

The Council has a statutory obligation to advertise and invite public submissions relating to proposals to adopt or modify local laws or town planning.

Elected Members

Members of the public can contact the Elected Members of the Council to discuss any issue relevant to the Council. Contact details for Councillors are listed on the Council website www.kulin.wa.gov.au

The Local Government Act 1995 provides for the conduct of Elector's Meetings, which are held each financial year sometime between December to March.

Ordinary Meetings of Council

Ordinary Meetings of Council are held on the third Wednesday of each calendar month, except January, and commence at 4.00pm. Special Meetings of Council may also be convened where necessary.

▪ Deputations

With the permission of the presiding member, a member of the public can personally, or on the behalf of a resident or group of residents, address the Council.

▪ Public Question Time

Members of the public are able to ask questions (preferably in writing) on any matters affecting the Shire in the time set aside for this purpose at meetings of the council, prior to the commencement of the meeting.

Written Requests

A member of the public can write to Council on any policy, activity, function or service of the Council whenever they wish to do so. Council also maintain a Complaints Register and forms will be provided on request.
